

Testimonials

"This opportunity was something that I have needed for several years..."

> C. Biggers Madisonville P. D.

" A thoroughly enjoyable and informative training program. It really opened my eyes to the world of terrorism. A great first step for anyone interested in becoming a more diligent law enforcement officer as it relates to terrorists."

L. Hecker LA State D.O.J.

" A great deal of information presented in a short period of time - good update and historical perspective of terrorism. Impressive presenters - well credentialed. Thank you for providing this opportunity at no cost to my agency."

P. Marek SE Univ. P.D.

" A good course for the everyday policeman in the field. All police officers in city, county and state that work in the field need to go through this course."

Anti-Terrorism Intelligence Awareness Training Program

(A Tuition-free Program)

Program Focus

The Anti-Terrorism Intelligence Awareness Training Program (AIATP) is an introductory program designed to provide line officers and first-line supervisors with a working knowledge of the intelligence process, guidelines, policies, tools, and techniques. The program includes interviews of officers who have arrested domestic terrorists.

Knowledge gained in this course will aid in the detection of pre-incident indicators related to terrorist activity in the community that may be encountered during the course of law enforcement duties.

Funding and oversight for this initiative is provided by the DHS Office of State and Local Government Coordination and Preparedness.

The Office of State and Local Government Coordination and Preparedness (SLGCP) is the federal government's lead agency responsible for preparing the nation against terrorism by assisting states, local and tribal jurisdictions, and regional authorities as they prevent, deter, and respond to terrorist acts. This service is provided through coordinated training, exercises, equipment acquisition, and technical assistance. The office is also a single point contact for facilitation and coordination of departmental programs that impact state, local, territorial, and tribal governments.
